

MARK MARTIN TO FILL COUNCIL SPOT

The City Council voted to appoint Mark Martin at its February 12th meeting to fill the vacant seat left by the passing of Council Member Andy Curry. Martin previously served on the City Council in 2022 when he filled another unexpired term. A resident in J&L Ranchland, Martin brings with him over 45 years of experience with the City of Humble having served as a fire fighter, fire inspector, emergency management coordinator, and assistant City Manager before retiring as an employee in 2012; after which he served an additional 6 years as a part-time facilities manager. Welcome back Mark!

WARRANT AMNESTY HAPPENING NOW

Got an unpaid speeding or code violation ticket? The Municipal Court is running it's annual Warrant Amnesty Program now through March 31st. Individuals with outstanding fines and warrants are encouraged to make arrangements without fear of arrest during the month of March. Those who contact the Humble Municipal Court during the amnesty program could have warrant fees reduced or waived, receive a reduction in fines, or have Failure to Appear Violations dismissed. Act fast because on April 1st the Court and Humble PD will begin this year's Warrant Round-Up and instead of receiving the deal mentioned above, you may find yourself in silver bracelets instead. For more information – call 281-446-6574.

HUMBLE FLOWER FEST DEBUTS IN APRIL

Change is coming to downtown Humble this spring. After 43 years Good Oil Days is moving to its new date in October following the success of the 2025 edition, which was moved to the fall due to bad weather in the Spring. But we know how much you love the world famous hanging plant sale brought to you by our Parks Department...So we created the Humble Flower Festival which will take place on Main Street on the previous Good Oil Days weekend in April. Stay tuned for more info!
