DEACON ALFRED STEWART HONORED

Recently, Mayor Norman Funderburk and his wife Kathy, together with Dr. Timothy Sloan and members of The Luke Church honored Deacon Alfred “Fats” Stewart as the oldest active member in the congregation at 92 years young. While that number makes Deacon Stewart older than the incorporation of the City of Humble, he’s still younger than St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church, which is Humble’s oldest church, organized in 1900.

WARRANT AMNESTY IS HERE

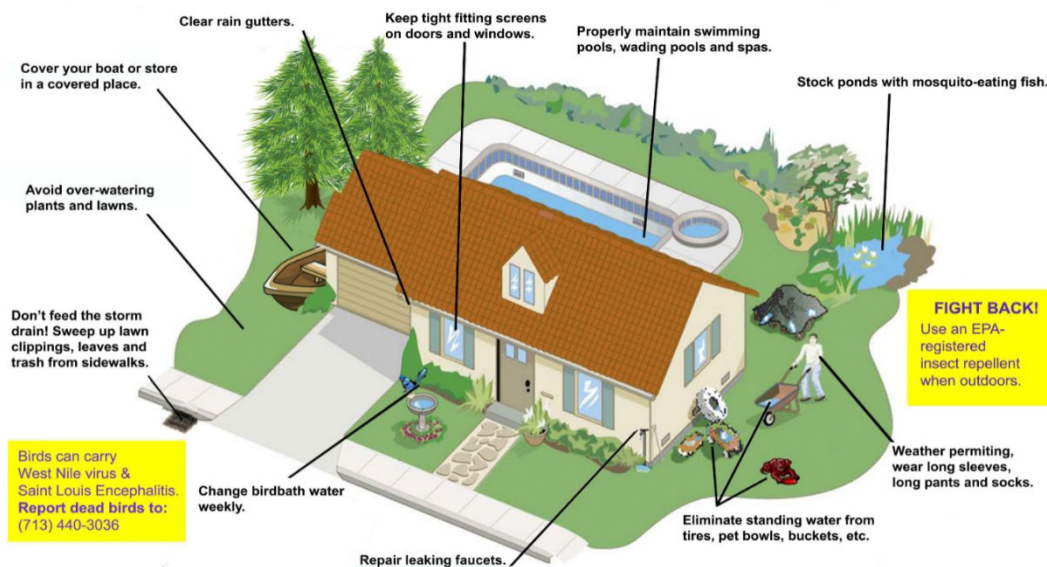

Have an unpaid speeding or other citation? The Municipal Court is running its annual Warrant Amnesty Program now through April 15th. Individuals with outstanding fines and warrants are encouraged to make arrangements without fear of arrest during this time. Those who contact the Humble Municipal Court during the amnesty period could have warrant fees reduced or waved, receive a reduction in the fine amount, and have their Failure to Appear Violation dismissed. We're telling you this because beginning on April 16th, the Municipal Court and Humble Police will begin their Warrant Round-Up with the goal of nabbing as many individuals with outstanding warrants as possible. Nobody has time for jail. For more information call 281-446-6574.
